LAUNCH OF THE ACTIVITY

February 2022

MAIN OBJECTIVE

The main objective of GDA AID Urban Sustainability is to provide Earth Observation (EO) Information in response to requirements identified in the urban domain by International Financial Institutions (IFIs) and their client governments in developing countries. The consortium collected the operational needs of IFI projects and programmes to identify possible innovative applications, which are being rolled out in seven urban areas.

MAIN THEMES ADDRESSED USING EO INFORMATION:

Urban Planning and Land Administration

Urban Transport

Urban Environment and Health

Urban Climate Resilience
