LAUNCH OF THE ACTIVITY

February 2022

MAIN OBJECTIVE

The primary purpose of GDA AID Disaster Resilience is to offer Earth Observation (EO) Information that addresses the needs identified in the field of disaster resilience by International Financial Institutions (IFIs) such as the World Bank and the Asian Development Bank. The consortium has gathered the operational requirements of IFI projects and programs to identify innovative applications that leverage the potential of EO for the benefit of IFIs' interests. These applications are being implemented in many countries exposed to various disaster risks.

MAIN THEMES ADDRESSED USING EO INFORMATION:

-  Exposure and Vulnerability Mapping
-  Natural hazards mapping
-  Risk Assessment
-  Support to Nature-based Solutions
